RIPANS TABULES.

Mr. Charles Austin Bates, the famous advertising writer, makes a specialty of medical advertisements. He has studied medicine and has a habit of analyzing the ingredients of every medicine about which he is asked to write, refusing to which he cannot indorse. He says of Ripans Tabules: "I had the formula and went through it from the ground up. I found that every one of the ingredients was put in for some special puresses and put in for some special purpose, and was good for the purpose intended. I have as much confidence in Ripans Tabules as I have in anything I ever wrote about. I take them myself when I have eaten little too much or feel nausea or symptotes of headache coming on, and I find them quicker to act than any medicine I ever took. I know some people who think they can't possibly get along without them. My wife went to call one day on some friends she had known always. She found they swore by Ripans Tabules. They did not know that she knew anything about them or that I had written anything for them. By the way, If you swallow them properly you don't taste anything in the mouth. Swallow them quick enough and you are all right—You can feel their action in the stomach almost

At the wedding of Miss Frances Brocken-brough Barber, daughter of Mr. John A. Barber of Marylard, and Mr. J. William Henry, son of the late Capt. J. L. M. Henry, U.S.A., and Mrs. Kate Kearney Henry of this city, yesterday at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mayhew Plater, the house was elaborately decorated with palms and white and yellow chrysanthemums. house was elaborately decorated with palms and white and yellow chrysanthemums. From the side walls of the parlor were stretched broad satin ribbons, which terminated beneath the chandeliers in large bows tied in true-lover's knots. Rev. Dr.Mackay-Smith of St. John's Church, Washington, performed the ceremony and Mr. William Metcalf was best man. The bride, who came into the room with her father, wore cream white sain trimmed on the corsage Metcalf was best man. The bride, who came into the room with her father, wore cream white satin, trimmed on the corsage with a fall of point lace and pearl passementeries. The tulle veil was fastened with a diamond and pearl pin, the groom's present. She was preceded by her sister, Miss Maggie Barber, who wore a gown of light green satin, trimmed with passementeries, and large, full sleeves of the same shade of Dresden satin. Mrs. Mayhew Plater received the guests in an elegant gown of black crepe de chene. Mrs. Kate Kearney Henry, mother of the groom, wore a handsome gown of black satin and point lace. Miss Eugenia Barber, youngest sister of the bride, wore a gown of pink satin. There were about 100 guests at the wedding and at the breakfast that followed. At the latter Miss Emily Stevens presided at the punch and Mrs. Llewellyn Nicholson poured coffee. After a northern trip Mr. and Mrs. Henry will return to make their home for a year in the residence of Mrs. Plater, on N near the corner of 32d street, where the bride will receive on Tuesdays after January 1.

Mrs. Mayhew Plater will sail for Europe December 10, to spend a year abroad. Upon her arrival in Europe Mrs. Plater will join her niece, Miss Beckwith, daughter of the late Bishop Beckwith of Atlanta, who has been in Europe for some time past, studying music and the languages.

FESTIVAL OF HOLIDAYS. ing Opening Last Nigh Willard's Hall.

Department Commander Anderson formally opened the festival of American holidays last evening at Willard's Hall with an ar propriate speech. The festival was arranged and is being given by the Woman's Relief Corps, and, judging from the attendance last evening, is an assured success. Gay decorations transformed the hall into a scene of beauty, and booths stocked with fancy articles added color to the occasion. When Commander Anderson had concluded his speech Mrs. Anna M. Hamilton, the head his speech Mrs. Anna M. Hamilton, the head of the Relief Corps, made a fitting response, and then the program proper began. The first number was a flag drill by a squad of young ladies, under command of Miss Minnie Roberts, the team comprising Misses Emma McClain, Nettie Cole, Mattie Cole, Edith Gill, Nonette Strieby, Love Fergusin, Emma Burgess, Mabel Lewis, Mabel Walters, Blanche McClure, Florence Ross and May Snowhill. The drill was by music, Miss Lottie Wilson serving as accompanist.

A Martha Washington tea followed, the participants being attired in the costume of the last century. During the tea a special participants being attired in the costume of the last century. During the tea a special program of music and recitations was pre-sented. A bona fide New England dinner is to be served this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, and a program of special interest has been prepared for this evening. G. H. Thomas and John A. Logan Corps will celebrate Decoration day this evening in an appropriate manner. They have ar-ranged an elegant program, securing some ranged an elegant program, securing some of the finest talent in the city. Commander Crisp will be master of ceremonies and Corporal Jas. Tanner will make the ad-dress of the evening. An enjoyable even-ing is promised.

Unlicensed Bar.

Policeman Boyce of the first precinct complained in the Police Court today against Ida Ashford for keeping an alleged unlicensed bar in her house in the "Division," and her counsel. Mr. Carrington, demanded a jury trial. This is the first case of the kind from this section for many months, and it is said that the police will bring a number of other cases.

The Knights of Labor. At this morning's session of the executive board of the Knights of Labor routine business only was transacted. At noon a recess was taken until 2 p.m., and upon reassembling the session will be devoted to hearing appeals from assemblies. There are a large number of these cases, but it is expected that all will be disposed of before adjournment for the day.

Rev. William Alvin Bartlett, D.D., and Mrs. Bartlett arrived in the city last evening, and are stopping at the Hamilton House. Since his resignation last fall as paster of the New York Avenue Church, on account of ill health, Dr. Bartlett has been living in Europe, principally in Paris, where his son was attending school. Up to last spring Dr. Bartlett's health had not improved very much, but since that time he has steadily grown better, and is now he has steadily grown better, and is now in fine condition physically, and is in excellent spirits. He has not been in a pulpit since his retirement from the New York Averue Church, and has followed carefully the doctor's directions, which prescribed entire relief from professional duties. He intends to spend about a week here, and will go to New York and from thence to the home of Mrs. Bartlett in New York state, where they will spend Christmas. His plans for the future are not definitely fixed, but it is probable that he will go west, spending some time in Chicago, and then he and Mrs. Bartlett may possibly take a Mediterranean trip, spending the spring months on the coast of Italy. Before coming to this city Mrs. Bartlett placed their son at the school in Lawrence-ville, N. J., and Dr. Bartlett spent some days at Binghamton, N. Y., where for several years he was pastor of a church. Dr. and Mrs. Bartlett have received a warm welcome here, and a large number of their friends and former parishioners have called on them.

Judge Kimball Says Street Obstruc-tion Law is Valid.

Judge Kimball is tired of hearing of test cases under the law providing a penalty

Judge Kimball held that the stand had been put on the sidewalk in violation of law. This law, the judge said, has been tested and determined several times, and he did not intend to be suspending sentences and considering any so-called test case pleas. There is no doubt about the validity and scope of the law, and those who violate its provisions must expect to pay the penalty. The defendant was fined $25, which he paid. BY HER CHILDREN.

vember 26, 1894.

A bitter cup—a shock severe—
To part from one we love so dear;
But still we must not complain,
But trust in God to meet again.
BY HER DAUGHTER AND GRANDCHILDREN.
